

Learning in Retirement Scholarship Fund

Learning in Retirement has provided annual scholarships to both credit and non-credit QVCC students for many years. In addition to these annual scholarships, in 2008, LiR decided to endow a LiR Scholarship Fund through the QVCC Foundation. This endowed fund will help generations of deserving students.

Your support of this scholarship fund would be greatly appreciated. You may give to this worthy cause by credit card or with a check made payable to the QVCC Foundation. Please be sure to state on your check, or with your credit card number, that your donation is RESTRICTED to the LiR Scholarship Fund. Your gift may be tax deductible under IRS guidelines.
