Shop Till You Drop at the QVCC Foundation's Online Auction

www.qvccfoundation.cmarket.com

Do your holiday shopping and support a great cause. The Quinebaug Valley Community College Foundation is holding its annual Online Auction during the month of November, with the proceeds benefiting scholarship funds at the College. Each year the Foundation provides more than $100,000 in direct scholarship, financial aid, and emergency funds to QVCC students.

Auction items include jewelry, art, sports tickets, restaurant gift certificates, rounds of golf, wine, and many others. New items will be added weekly. The Foundation is still accepting donations of items. People interested in donating should contact Monique Wolanin, director of college development, at 412-7328. Read more

Teaching Career Information Session to be Held on November 13

Anyone interested in learning how to become a teacher is invited to attend a Teaching Career Information Session at Quinebaug Valley Community College on Thursday, November 13. The information provided will cover early childhood, elementary, and secondary teaching.

Representatives from Eastern Connecticut State University and QVCC will discuss the Traditional Route to Teacher Certification from 5:30-7:30 pm. Career professionals with a bachelor's or master's degree can hear Maria Davoudi from the Connecticut Department of Higher Education speak about the Alternative Route to Certification from 6:15-8:30 pm.

The session will cover eligibility requirements, coursework content, application procedures, and transfer requirements. For more information, call the QVCC Career Center at 412-7266.
